

JAPAN INTERNATIONAL MEDIATION CENTER in KYOTO Curriculum Vitae

	Surname	ANDERSON
	First Name	ALAN
	Nationality	USA
	Country of Residence	USA
Language	English & working knowledge of German
Profession/Occupation and Organization	Attorney – president, Alan Anderson Law Firm LLC, Minneapolis, MN USA Door Tenant – Littleton Chambers, London, England
Professional Affiliations and Positions	Fellow, Chartered Institute of Arbitrators; Fellow, Asian Institute of Alternative Dispute Resolution; Fellow, Australian Centre for International Commercial Arbitration & member of the Centre’s Council; International Accredited Professional Mediator, Mainland-Hong Kong Joint Mediation Center; Certified Civil Trial Advocate, National Board of Trial Advocacy; Certified Senior Civil Trial Specialist, State of Minnesota; Managing Director, Forum for International Conciliation and Arbitration (FICA)
Qualifications	See above. I am an internationally recognized arbitrator, mediator, and trial counsel. I have been involved with over 500 mediations, including with entities from such countries as Japan, South Korea, Australia, Germany, France, Sweden, England, and the US. I represented FICA at Working Group II of UNCITRAL in connection with its recent work drafting an international convention and model law relating to the international enforcement of international mediated settlement agreements. I also represent FICA at Working Group III of UNCITRAL, which is now considering reforms to the Investor-State Dispute Settlement system.

Educational/Professional Background	PhD – Kings College London LL.M. (specialization in international dispute resolution) – University of London MA – Norwich University JD – Cornell University MBA – Cornell University BA – Coe College I have been in private practice for over 35 years. For most of that time I was a partner in major law firms, including what is now Norton Rose Fulbright. In 2011 I left large-firm practice and started my own firm, where I continue to practice in the same areas as previously. I am listed in The Best Lawyers in America®, among other professional recognitions.
Mediation Training and Certification	Completed 40-hours of mediation training sponsored by the Minnesota State Bar Association; completed numerous continuing education seminars and courses in mediation including acting as a presenter, for example, at the Biennial International Mediation Symposium in Salzburg, Austria (I am one of the global regional co-chairs for this event for 2019), and mediation training sponsored by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators; certified as a Rule 114 Qualified Neutral for mediation by the State Bar of Minnesota; International Accredited Professional Mediator – Mainland-Hong Kong Joint Mediation Center
Mediation Style	It depends on the nature of the dispute. I try to get the parties to recognize possible issues in each of their respective positions to encourage them to reach a compromise resolution, which may involve solutions not obtainable or achievable through arbitration or mediation. This may require a range of styles to encourage each side to “put their best offer on the table”.
Mediation Experience	See above. I have been involved in over 500 mediations during my career, including many involving non-US entities. Please note that I have particular expertise and experience in damages-related issues.
